For Coins, no less than Medals, give a great light to History, in confirming such passages as are true, in settling such as are told after different manners, and in recording such as have been omitted. The truth of which will, I conceive, appear from facts in dispute amongst our Historians, which are now settled and confirmed by the evidence of some of the Coins mentioned in the following Essay. This kind of Study is so confessedly interesting, that many treatises on this subject have been published in several of our neighbouring countries; witness those of Bouteroue Le Blanc, on the French coins, of Thomas Broeder Bircherod, on the Danish, of Elias Brenner, on the Swedish, and of M. Folkes and S. M. Leake, Esqrs. on the English. But we have not as yet any particular treatise on the Monies of this Kingdom. There are indeed two curious but very short chapters on Irish Coins, one in the Antiquities of Ireland, by Sir James Ware, the other in the Irish-Historical Library, by Bishop Nicholson; the conciseness of which induced me to draw up (at first only for my own amusement and instruction) some observations upon what they had written on that subject: And although I have been enabled to make...
