Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Scripture Homeopathy Begin, my pen! some heavenly theme, And write some boundless thing, The mighty works or mightier name Of our Eternal King. The history of the world is divided into three periods, marked by two important events - the Deluge and the advent of Christ. The dispensations of these periods are so distinct that it may be said there are three worlds in one. They, however, so completely overlap each other that there is no imperfect link in the entire chain which connects the beginning with the final end, and each is so involved in the others that the study of one necessarily unfolds them all. Much speculation has been indulged in by those who are inclined to disbelieve the account given by Moses of a universal deluge, as to where the water came from which covered the highest mountains of the earth, fifteen cubits and upwards. In answering this cavil, there has been various suppositions advanced by those having implicit faith in the Scripture account of the Flood. It has been held by some that there was water created for the purpose, and afterwards annihilated by Divine power - but there is nothing in the Scripture to support such a supposition. In fact, there is nothing in the account of the earth's formation, as described by Moses, that gives any account whatever of the creation of water, at any time as a distinct element, or the annihilation of a single drop of it. At the creation of the earth, as described by Moses, water was an element existing and prevailing exceedingly, and darkness was upon its face. The incomprehensible blackness of darkness...
