O. , Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)50562944 Subject: Bankruptcy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 The assessment process itself is a blend of quantitative and qualitative factors. The quantitative factors that are parts of the rating process include an evaluation of published financial information, supplemental financial information, and peer financial performance. Qualitative factors include business fundamentals, competitive position, growth opportunities, the regulatory environment, and our view as to the abilities of management. Our analysis of Enron followed the rating process described above. Over the past several years, because of a significant shift in its business mix and a rapid revenue growth, Enrons reported financial profile, in size alone, as presented in its income statement and balance sheet, changed significantly. Yet although the market capitalization of Enron increased dramatically over the past several years, the various credit ratios and other factors used by Fitch supported a constant BBB-plus rating during the period from 1993 until the fourth quarter of 2001. It...
