Excerpt: . is B d r that the notice given to Sells did not inform him, , ::, , that the proposed change of the grade of the street ovnnernutnotb in front of his property was to be lowered, but did =1 frhflusfl acquaint him with the fact that it was to be slightly raised, and this was in effect a notice to him that his property would not be materially injured by such change. When the change was made, however, and the street made to conform thereto, it was found that the street in front of his buildings was lowered l8 inches. The city, therefore, did not give him notice of what they intended to do, nor did the city authorities conform to the terms of the notice given. Appraisers were appointed to assess the damages, and they acted in accordance with the terms...
