They deny that any soul could perish Greek apolloomee--be destroyed while the Apostle says it could; and so says our Lord-- God is able to destroy both soul and body. They deny also that any are fallen asleep in Christ denying that death is a sleep, awaiting a resurrection morn awakening, while the apostles, our Lord and all the holy prophets unitedly declare it to be a sleep from which God s power alone can awaken to consciousness, soul, sentient being, on any plane of existence. For be it noted that those who experience the change of the first resurrection to the divine nature will be souls as truly as they were in their earthly nature. God is declared to be a soul, the same word psuche being used, -- If any man draw back, my soul psuche--sentient being shall have no pleasure in him. --Heb. 10:38. The Platonic philosophy (that man does not and cannot die, but merely appears to do so) prevailed throughout Greece at the time of the first advent, and constituted the great obstacle to the progress of the gospel among the Gentiles. For instance, we read that when Paul preached at Athens he was listened to as a great teacher by the philosophers until he touched on the resurrection of the dead--that was enough; they had no further interest; they considered themselves far in advance of the Jewish idea that the dead can have no future existence except by a...
